Dear Potential Exhibitor,

LSEM would like to present you with a unique opportunity to exhibit at a two-conference event March 23-26, 2011 in Cincinnati, Ohio for a single exhibition fee. On Wednesday, March 23rd the Christian Affiliation of Special Educators (CASE) Conference 2011 will take place at a downtown Cincinnati hotel. LSEM is hosting this event for special education professionals serving Christian schools throughout the United States. On Thursday, March 24th the 10th Triennial Lutheran Education Association (LEA) Convocation begins at the Duke Energy Center in Cincinnati. This popular event plans to have more than 3,000 professional educators and administrators from Lutheran schools and congregations nationally and internationally in attendance.

LSEM is partnering with LEA by hosting the featured Disability Awareness Lab for convocation participants to experience what it is like to learn differently. Surrounding the Disability Awareness Lab will be exhibitors who provide services for children with special learning needs. LSEM invites you to be one of those exhibitors. Please check out the "Dare to be Special" Package on page 6 of the exhibitor brochure by going to <http://www.lea.org/Convocation2011/LEA2011ExhibitorBrochure.pdf>. The "Dare to be Special" Package is considered a Full Recognition Package by LEA and includes the free bonus offers outlined on page 3 of the brochure.

Take advantage of the "Dare to be Special" Package soon, as spaces are limited and reserved on a first come, first serve basis. LSEM is excited to see what knowledge and materials you have to offer, and we look forward to seeing you there!

Blessings,
